The Energy of Money Prosperity Workshop on Sunday

San Clemente, Calif. (October 30, 2017) – When people get a "handle" on money, they get a "handle" on life, says Rev. Dr. Maureen Hoyt, when talking about her workshop titled The Energy of Money, based on a book by Maria Nemeth of the same name.

Hoyt, a trained Energy of Money workshop facilitator, will present a workshop on Sunday, November 5, from noon to 2:30 at the Center for Spiritual Living Capistrano Valley in San Clemente, designed to help people explore and understand their life intention and the integrity standards that go along with those intentions in order to facilitate greater prosperity consciousness. Cost to attend the workshop is a love offering.

"We are so excited to have Dr. Maureen with us to guide our inquiry into prosperity and heal our internal dialog around money," said Rev. Pattie. "Dr. Maureen really has a deep understanding of these principles from years of studying The Energy of Money concepts. We believe our community will gain so much from her workshop."

During the 90 minutes or so with Hoyt, attendees will look at intention and integrity around money and begin an important dialogue. Hoyt will guide the audience to ask the empowering "Why" questions so that the brain can adjust to answering in a positive and upbeat manner. When we manage the energy of money, the same principles are used to manage relationships, health, and creative expression.
