Rev. Dr. Heather Dawn Clark
Senior Minister and Spiritual Director
Center for Spiritual Living Capistrano Valley

Dr. Heather Clark serves as Senior Minister and Spiritual Director of the Center for Spiritual Living Capistrano Valley, located in San Clemente, California.

She was first licensed as a minister in 1992 serving as staff minister in the Calgary Center for Spiritual Living for a year. For the next six years, she served as senior minister in Bonita, California. She has served as a member of the Centers for Spiritual Living Board of Education for four years and the Board of Directors for five years. She served on the Asilomar Retreat committee for five years. Dr. Heather passionately participated on the joint ICSL/UCSL Integration Committee.

Dr. Heather received a Bachelor of Education in 1968 from the University of Saskatchewan and taught all grades, ages and abilities.

A personal awakening to the Divine Presence in the early 80's was her motivation to find a like-minded community. With that in mind, she came upon a small independent New Thought Center and was a founding member of the first Science of Mind Center in Edmonton in 1985.

Dr. Heather loves to teach the principles of the Science of Mind in clear, practical ways, engaging her students by drawing upon her rich knowledge of literature and sacred traditions to illustrate the concepts.

Her strengths are faith, love, health, honesty and creativity. Dr. Heather takes her commitments seriously and takes herself lightly.
